

HONOR PLEDGE FOR PRELIM EXAMS
UNDER THE "OPEN BOOK" SYSTEM

During the preliminary examinations, I hereby pledge to consult with no one and to use only notes, which I personally have prepared, or which members of my study group have prepared. The text of the written examination will be composed during the examination period and may not be transferred from any computer file in whole or in part. I fully understand that violation of any of these conditions will automatically entail failure of the prelim exams and possibly expulsion from the graduate program.
